But a Small Vote is Being Cast in the Eleventh District.

Ten Thousand Miners Go On a Strike in Colorado Closing 100 Mines.

A DEATH IN LOUISVILLE

SMALL VOTE CAST.

Louisville, Nov. 10.—The special election in the Eleventh district to choose a successor to the late Congressman Boring is being held today. The name of Dr. Godfrey Hunter, former minister to Honduras, is on the official ballot in some counties, while that of D. C. Edwards appears on the ticket in other counties. Former Congressman J. D. White is running as an independent. The instructions of the different courts to the election clerks are so conflicting that to obey one injunction disobeys another, and the clerks have in many instances been guided by personal preference.

Dispatches from the Eleventh district indicate that the vote is small and favors Hunter.

10,000 MINERS STRIKE.

Denver, Col., Nov. 10.—More than 10,000 coal miners in Colorado went on a strike yesterday for an eight hour day, increased wages and other concessions. The strike was ordered by the national officers of the United Mine Workers of America after the coal companies refused to confer with union representatives concerning the demands of the men. Of the idle men 6,000 are in the southern coal field; 2,000 in the northern coal fields, and 1,800 in Fremont county. One hundred mines have been closed down.

PROMINENT LADY DIES.

Louisville, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Andrew Ewing, mother of Mrs. Henry Waterson, died at 11:45 this morning at the residence of Mr. Waterson, "Mansfield," near Louisville, from heart trouble. She was 84 years old. The funeral will be Thursday morning from the residence of a son, Robert Ewing in Nashville.

Warrants were issued against Jeff Carter and Mitchell Jackson, colored, who fought this morning, mention being made elsewhere, charging the former with two offenses, that of cursing Jackson's wife and with carrying concealed and deadly weapons. Jackson is charged with malicious striking with intent to kill.

Cal Hinton, white, was arrested for an alleged violation of the Sabbath by keeping his saloon open on Sunday.

French Owen, colored, was arrested for striking Viola Kelly, colored.

Mr. W. T. Miller went to Benton this morning on business.

The Panama Republic Is Recognized by French.

Nothing Startling From Colon—This Government to Regulate Embarkation of Troops.

NEW TREATY TALKED OF

FRANCE RECOGNIZES PANAMA.

Paris, Nov. 10.—The French government today recognized the de facto government of the republic of Panama.

LATEST FROM COLON.

Colon, Nov. 10.—A coasting vessel left today for Puerto Bello, carrying a few troops who will hoist the flag of the new republic of Panama there.

Dr. Manuel Amador, minister of finance, and, Frederico Boyd, a member of the junta, have been appointed by the provisional government a committee of two to go to Washington and arrange with the United States for canal and other necessary treaties. They will leave on the steamer City of Washington. It is said that the commissioners will endeavor to have amendments made to article 8 of the Hay-Herran canal treaty, and to eliminate article 12, in order that the entire territory of the republic may be made free to the commerce of the world which the commercial stipulations of article 12 are considered prejudicial.

WHAT UNCLE SAM SAYS.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Embarking of Colombian troops from Buena Ventura or any other Colombian port for the isthmus will not be permitted by the Washington government, and American warships will be ordered to any port upon receipt of an intimation that Colombian troops will attempt to sail for the isthmus. The Washington government holds that this policy is in the interest of the general good.

THE CANAL TREATY.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Reports are current to the effect that an effort is being made whereby negotiations for a Panama canal treaty might yet be resumed with Colombia, notwithstanding the defection of the department of Panama and the establishment of an independent government there.

MAY HAVE CANCER.

FEARS ENTERTAINED OF THE GERMAN EMPEROR.

New York, Nov. 10.—Information contained in private dispatches received here shows that the operation on Emperor William is similar to the first one performed on his father, and consequently causes concern to his household.

It is recalled that surgeons at that time made nothing of the first operation on Emperor Frederick. There is anxiety because both Emperor William's father and mother died of cancer and his grandmother Augusta also was so afflicted. The emperor's aunt, the grand duchess of Baden, as is well known in Germany, is suffering from the same malady.

It will take months to decide whether the emperor has cancer.

WILL RECOVER.

CHANCES FOR FIREMAN EDGAR BUCK IMPROVE.

Parents of Mr. Edgar Buck, who was injured perhaps fatally near Pine bluff, Ark., in a railroad accident last week, this morning received a letter from the physicians at Little Rock saying that the boy was much improved. He was at first unconscious, but has now regained his senses and his doctors think he will recover. This will be encouraging news to his many friends here. He was struck by the crown plate of the boiler blowing off.

STEEL STOCKS.

New York, Nov. 10.—Steel stocks were the feature of the market again today, and both the preferred and the common touched new low records. The common stock sold low, $10 per share, and preferred at $49.75 per share.

NEW BRICK STREETS A DESPERATE FIGHT

The Street Committee Decides on Which to Pave.

A Wrangle Is Anticipated Over the Part the Present Boards Are to Play.

NEW BOARDS WANT ALL CREDIT

There is likely to be a squabble in the local legislative boards over beginning the work preliminary to building the $300,000 worth of brick streets. A meeting of the street committee was held this morning in Mayor Yeiser's office, at which it was decided to recommend to the boards at their next meeting that the streets that are to be paved by the bond issue be as follows: Third street from Kentucky or Court, to Broad street, thence to Farley's store.

Fifth street from Kentucky or Court to Trimble, Trimble to Sixth and Sixth to the Illinois Central freight depot. Broadway and Jefferson streets from Fifth to 12th.

Court street from Fifth to Ninth. First, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth streets from Kentucky to Jefferson street. Eighth street is not open.

The committee meeting was called for 10 o'clock this morning. There were present Councilmen Hannon, Potter and Hummel and Alderman Kirchoff.

Mr. Charles Robertson, the contractor, stated that the bid he made for improving Husbands street from Third to Fourth did not cover everything desired, and he consequently declined to sign the contract. As a result the city will advertise for new bids.

Councilman Hummel then presented a report embodying the above recommendations relative to which streets shall be paved. Councilman Hannon, who is to be a member of the new board, stated that he did not think the present board should have anything to do with the street paving to be done with the money secured by a bond issue. He thought it all ought to be left to the new board which goes into office January 1.

Councilman Potter and Alderman Kirchoff, who with Councilman Hummel retire in January, did not seem to coincide in this view, and Councilman Hannon, who had business to attend to, left the meeting.

After discussing the matter, the other three signed the recommendation to the two boards, and alderman Chamblin signed it later, and as they constitute a majority of the committee, the recommendations will go to the boards as a report from the joint street committee.

Councilman Potter stated afterwards that he didn't understand why the present boards were not just as well qualified and as competent to start the brick street work as anyone. He declared that the preliminaries should be started now, so everything will be ready to begin work early in the spring.

This view will probably be taken by a majority of members of the two boards. If these preliminaries are deferred until the new board goes into office in January, it is claimed there will not be time enough to then start things off and have the work begin as soon as advisable.

At present the question seems to have resolved itself into one of whether the present board shall get any of the credit for the brick streets or shall leave it all to the new board. The prospects are that the present boards will insist on doing as much work as possible before the new board goes in nearly two months hence, and allow the new boards to take up the work where they leave off. This theory is strengthened by the fact that over half of the present council and half the board of aldermen will retire in January, and those who are to go out of office seem to want to leave as much to their credit as possible. This, together with the fact that the work should be started without delay, seems to indicate that a majority of the present boards will insist on beginning work at once.

Two Colored Switchmen Badly Used up.

Jeff Carter Was Assaulted with a Poker While Asleep By Mitchell Jackson.

BOTH MEN WERE ARRESTED

Mitchell Jackson and Jeff Carter, two colored switchmen employed by the I. C., had a desperate fight this morning about 9:30 o'clock at the former's home, in which Carter was badly beaten up and is in a serious condition.

It seems that ill feeling had existed between the two for many years although they had apparently been good friends for some time. This morning, according to Jackson's story, Carter came to his house at 407 South Seventh street and struck him in the face while he was asleep. Jackson jumped up and grabbed a poker as Carter went down into his pants after a pistol and a lively fight ensued. Jackson struck his antagonist repeatedly with the iron poker and finally succeeded in driving him away.

The police were notified of the affair and Officer Buck Whitehurst went out and arrested both parties. Carter's head is in a bad plight and is a mass of beaten flesh and bone. The doctor worked on him nearly two hours dressing the injuries but thinks they will not prove fatal.

Jackson's wife was in a rear room when Carter entered the house and in trying to separate the two got her dress covered with blood. She ran out in the street to summon aid and attracted much attention by her extraordinary appearance. Carter as he ran had dropped his pistol and this was picked up by the woman, whom every one thought to be on the war path.

Carter claims that Jackson had been "saying things about him" and that he had gone in to settle the matter. Jackson claims that Carter cursed him when he struck him in the face while lying in bed. The affair will be aired in police court tomorrow morning.

HOBSON LOST HIS MEDAL

YOUNGER SISTER CARRIED ID IN HER PURSE—WARRANT SWORN OUT.

New York, Nov. 10.—Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson appeared in the Jefferson market police court today to apply for a search warrant for a house in West Thirty-eighth street, which is a sanitarium. He told Magistrate Mayo that his sister, Margaret Hobson, who has been attending an older sister there who is suffering from nervous prostration, lost a purse containing $68 and a gold medal studded with 38 diamonds, worth $1,000. Captain Hobson said this medal was presented to him by a southern society and he prized it highly.

As Captain Hobson was unable to state that the purse had been stolen the magistrate informed him that it would be inadvisable to issue a search warrant and issued three summons for the manager of the sanitarium and two colored servants to appear in court Wednesday. Captain Hobson also notified police headquarters of his loss.

NEW BOARDS

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THEY WILL BE FILLED SHORTLY.

It is understood that Mayor Yeiser is ready to appoint the board of public works as soon as the legislative boards provide for them by ordinance. It is understood that no stockholder in any corporation can under the law be a member of the board.

According to reports when the mayor appoints his new board of public library trustees there will not be over two of the present five trustees on it. Which two these will be is not given out.

Mr. R. A. Burnett, of Calif., who has been here visiting his nephew, Mr. Muscoe Burnett, returned home today at noon.

Young Girl Attempts Suicide at Fulton.

Railroad Commission to Fix Rates—Bloodhounds Track Christian County Thieves.

OTHER NEWS FROM THE STATE

TO FIX RAILROAD RATES.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 10.—Acting under the new McChord railroad bill, the state railroad commission will meet this week to fix freight and passenger rates on all railroads in the state. This will be the first time the commission has ever exercised the right given under the bill. All lines will be notified of the time and place of meeting. Ever since the passage of the McChord bill in the old Goebel legislature the railroads have been fighting the power of the commission to fix rates. The case was carried to the supreme court and the law was upheld.

O. C. McChord, chairman of the commission and author of the bill, said today that rates on all the roads would be fixed at what the commission believes to be reasonable and just. It is not likely that passenger rates will be changed, except on some roads where more than 3 cents a mile is charged. The commission will look into the long and short haul rates where there are alleged violations between some 150 towns in the state.

PROMINENT MAN DEAD.
Harrodsburg, Ky., Nov. 10.—Prof. John Augustus Williams, one of the best-known and most prominent educators in the state, died here after an illness of only three days. He was seventy-nine years old. Prof. Williams was born in Bourbon county, near Paris, September 25, 1824. He was graduated from the Bacon College at this place, after which he went to Columbia, Mo., and had charge of the college there until 1856, when he came here and opened Daughters' College, for many years one of the most famous institutions for young women in the state. He was the author of a number of well-known books and had just prepared the manuscript for another at the time of his death. He was married February 15, 1848, to Miss Mary Louise Hathaway, of Mt. Sterling, who died about sixteen months ago. Six children were born to them, all of whom are dead except Augustus E. Williams who lives here.

GIRL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.
Fulton, Ky., Nov. 10.—While visiting Mrs. Al Smith, Miss Pearl Hubbard, of Central City, Ky., a young girl 18 years old, attempted to commit suicide by drinking laudanum. Miss Hubbard left home in Central City about a year ago on account of her step-mother's mistreatment. Miss Hubbard has made many friends in Fulton during her residence here and the sensation created fully demonstrates the fact that she is very popular. The young lady has made threats of suicide, but no one paid any attention to her, thinking it only a joke. An old love affair is doubtless the cause of her rash act. She is now out of danger.

TAKEN BACK TO ANSWER.
Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10.—Deputy Sheriff E. E. Taylor and Attorney Floyd Strader, of Randolph county, W. Va., arrived here with requisition papers for the return of W. E. Alkire, wanted in that county on the charge of murder. The crime for which Alkire is wanted is the alleged killing of John Blackenship, which occurred in a drunken quarrel several weeks ago. When arrested here two weeks ago Alkire feigned insanity, but has regained his mind during his confinement.

TRACKED BY HOUNDS.
Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 10.—The general merchandise store of David Smith at Fruit Hill was broken open and robbed. Two policemen and bloodhounds were sent from here to Fruit Hill. Joe Lewis and Jim Jones, colored, were tracked and found four miles from the store, having in their possession $100 worth of goods Smith identified as his. The parties are in jail, having confessed the theft.

KILLED IN WRECK.
Ashland, Ky., Nov. 10.—Frank White, a former resident of this city, and son of the late Dominique White, was instantly killed in a wreck on the Big Four near Cleveland, O. Mr. White was conductor on the train.

There Are About 1500 of Them Maintained.

The First Were Established in 1870—Are Great Aids to Steamboat Pilots.

THEY COST MUCH MONEY

On the navigable waters of the western rivers, following a channel course 3820 miles long, Uncle Sam maintains nearly 1500 post lights, day marks and floating lights to guide pilots and navigators of his mighty streams, says the Washington Times. He pays his 1500 light keepers sums varying from $50 to $250 a year to trim and oil his inland beacons once a day. His anxious care for the safety of the thousands of craft that steam over the surface of this great waterway is such that he lights the course with a clear warning glimmer at short intervals of a few hundred yards, where it is dangerous and difficult.

Pilots and river captains are kept well informed of the location of lights on which side of the channel they are placed, the color, name and number of the light, and the distance to the fraction of a mile from the headwaters of navigation.

Along the Ohio river, from Pittsburgh to the Mississippi, there is a light about every two miles, unless some portion of the river is unusually crooked, when the lights are placed at more frequent intervals.

Some old veteran, whose hardworking days are over, and on whose reliability the lighthouse inspectors can depend, usually is selected for the simple task of cleaning and trimming the lamps.

The distance the keeper has to walk regulates the amount of his pay. It is worth $20 to $30 a month that some of them receive to make the trip of as high as five miles 365 days a year.

Charts and navigating directions are not of much use, as the rivers change their courses and channels with dangerous frequency.

The lights and day marks are posted on that side of the river on which the channel runs, and are moved with the course of the current. Upward of 2000 people are employed, some of them, of course, at a modest stipend, to light the way for the inland mariner, and keep his course clear of dangerous obstacles.

The inland lighthouse districts have their headquarters at Cincinnati, St. Louis and Memphis, and each is in charge of an inspector and a corps of assistants. The largest district embraces the Ohio, Kanawha and Tennessee rivers of 1296 navigable miles, with 528 lights needing regular supplies of oil, wicks and lamp chimneys.

The Mississippi is divided into two districts. Above Cairo to St. Paul the fifteenth district, includes the Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois rivers of 1462 navigable miles.

Below Cairo to New Orleans, the sixteenth district, extends to the gulf, a distance of 1053 miles, of the Mississippi and nine miles of the Red river, with 391 lights.

Bridge piers are marked with the red lamp and a green light swinging in the center of the span. It is a curious fact, and one of which the pilots complain most loudly, that bridge lights are poorly attended to, and usually a dull, sickly gleam, hardly discernible through the dirty, smoky glass of the ill kept lamp. Steubenville bridge, with its narrow span and dangerous center pier, probably is the cause of more wrecks than any other obstacle in the Ohio river, and has about as poor a set of lights as there is to be found along the entire course.

Rivermen speak with praise of the way the old country lightkeepers attend to their lights. With a polished glass chimney, evenly trimmed wick, and a full can of oil, they send out a ray that can be seen for miles through the darkness of the night. When the post light is on a high bluff it is as good a steering point as could be provided.

The first government lights were established along the rivers about 1870.

Mark Twain Reaches Italy—Missouri Couple Almost Killed in Folding Bed.

A TOBACCO MAGNATE DYING

A SHORT SESSION EXPECTED.
Washington, Nov. 10.—If it is possible for them to do so, the leaders of the house and senate intend to bring the extraordinary session of congress to a close in two weeks, and then adjourn for the regular session beginning the second week in December. The men in the house who have control of the legislative program are extremely hopeful that this plan can be consummated, and are preparing to work to that end. The rules of the house are such that they permit the speaker and the committee on rules to control absolutely the debate on the Cuban reciprocity question, and they have practically made up their minds to get through with the bill making operative the treaty ratified last winter by the senate in a very short time.

Leaders of the senate are inclined to believe they will be able to co-operate with the house managers in bringing the session to a speedy close. They realize, however, that the freedom of debate in their body offers exceptional opportunities for obstruction which members on either side may take advantage of. Therefore, viewing the situation as it exists tonight, there is no reason why there should not be an early adjournment unless the obstructionists become active and carry the special session over into the regular session, which begins a month hence.

MARK TWAIN ARRIVES.
Florence, Italy, Nov. 10.—Samuel L. Clemens and his family, accompanied by George Gregory Smith, have arrived here and taken possession of the Villa Quarto, three and one-half miles from the city. The villa formerly was the property of a Russian grand duchess, and was afterward occupied by the king of Wurtemberg. It is now owned by Count Reybaudi Massaglia, Italian minister to Persia, who was formerly consul at Philadelphia, where he married Miss Paxton.

CAUGHT IN FOLDING BED.
Hannibal, Mo., Nov. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caler were caught in a folding bed Saturday night and had a narrow escape from being instantly killed. Mr. Caler was severely bruised and his wife sustained a dislocated neck, and in consequence she is paralyzed from the waist down. Her condition is critical and fears are entertained for her recovery.

DURHAM MAGNATE DYING.
Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 10.—Colonel W. T. Blackwell, of Durham, was stricken with paralysis and no hope is held out for his recovery. Staring out as a poor boy he amassed a fortune in tobacco, being the original Durham Bull manufacturer. In later years he lost his fortune.

AN IDEAL COUNTY

NO DEBT, NO CRIMINALS, NO PAUPERS AND NO SALOONS.

One of the most remarkable counties in the world is Edwards county, Illinois. It has $12,000 in its treasury, does not owe a cent, has a nearly new and substantial courthouse, has all iron bridges, and many other things desirable, on account of good management. There is not a pauper in the county and the jail has not had an occupant for years. The county has not for thirty years sent a prisoner to either of the Illinois penitentiaries. In the past thirty years there has only been one saloon in the county one year.

A WAGER LOST.
From the Chicago Post.

"She's a treacherous thing," asserted the girl in blue.

"How is that?" asked the girl in gray.

"Why, we fixed it up between us that she was to refuse him if he proposed, and then I made a bet with him that she would."

"Well?"

"Well, she didn't."

THE FATAL COURTSHIP.

Find Man Who is Watching.

A Mouse, having assisted a Lion in escaping from a net in which he had been caught, was so emboldened by the offers of friendship made to him by the Lion in return for his assistance, that he asked for the hand of his daughter in marriage. The Lion, amused at the request, good-humoredly told the mouse he should plead his own cause, and called the young Lioness to come to him. She, bounding forward heedlessly, did not see her little lover, who was running to meet her, and, one of her paws falling upon him, he was crushed to pieces.

A REPORTED CURE FOR CANCER IN EUROPE

London, Nov. 10.—A new treatment of cancer, which is believed to mark an important advance in the treatment of the dreaded growth, has been explained before a meeting of the Abernethian Society of St. Bartholomew's hospital by Dr. Johnson, who has been examining the methods employed by Dr. Otto Schmidt, of Cologne.

"Dr. Schmidt's opinion," he said, "is that cancer is conditional on the presence in the patient of a cancer parasite which produces a structural change in the cells of the part affected. The difficulty has been to decide which if any, of them, is the cause of cancer. Dr. Schmidt believes he has isolated the specific parasite.

"With this parasite Dr. Schmidt has done two things: He seems to have sterilized it with liquid air and he has also injected it into animals and developed a serum which has the power of destroying cancer cells. Sterilized parasites he used for one treatment. Animal serum he used for his second treatment. Successful use of the discovery depends upon arrest of the process, removal of the growth and the fact that no vital organ has been seriously injured."

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THERE IS A SOCIALISTIC MOVE ON.

Boston, Nov. 19.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor began yesterday in Faneuil Hall. The arrivals include Samuel Gompers and President Mitchell.

The convention will be in session at least ten days and 475 delegates, representing 17,000 votes, will be in attendance.

One of the principal questions to be considered by the convention will be whether the American Federation of Labor shall recommend that its affiliated members ally themselves with that political party which in their judgment will best promote the cause of labor. It is said that a resolution will be introduced implicitly pledging the Federation to the cause of Socialism.

Among the other questions to be discussed are those of industrialism against trade autonomy, women and child labor, the eight-hour question, trade jurisdiction, arbitration of labor difficulties and unionism in government offices.

STILL ALARMING.

THE YARD BLOCKADE DOES NOT IMPROVE

The local Illinois Central freight yards are assuming an alarming condition and the passenger trains are being affected by the congested condition of the yards and are being delayed. Not only are the Paducah yards in bad shape but the yards at both points on the Louisville and Memphis divisions are also becoming clogged up with fast accumulating cars.

This morning the main line was managed a little better than yesterday in the yards and the train was delayed but a short time. The yard men are working heroically but can hardly master the situation. Nothing but company coal and manifest freight is being handled.

ST. LOUIS RATS DYING BY THOUSANDS.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—Since the introduction of Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste in this city, thousands of rats and mice have been killed by its use. It is sure death to rats, mice, water bugs, cockroaches, etc. It clears the house of rats and mice, driving them out of doors to die. Druggists and grocers generally have this excellent article in stock. It is easy to use and can always be relied upon. If you cannot get the paste of your dealer, order direct of the Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Chicago, Ill., and on receipt of price they will forward it by express prepaid. ANOTHER POSTMAN IS URGED TO REMAIN IN TURKEY SUPPLY

Paducah Allowed Additional Mail Carrier Today.

Mr. T. W. Roberts Appointed to Carry Route No. 10—Will Be Great Benefit.

ROUTE NOT FULLY ARRANGED

Another letter carrier has been allowed the Paducah postoffice by the department at Washington, effective next Monday, November 16. This makes ten postmen for Paducah, an increase of four in five years. The new route will be known as "No. 10," and has not been fully outlined by Superintendent of Carriers Mr. Fred B. Ashton.

Mr. Thomas W. Roberts, at present substitute carrier, will be appointed to the regular position, and the service will be greatly improved by the increase in facilities.

Postmaster Fisher, who now has four new carriers to the credit of his administration, has been after the carrier allowed today for the past year, and thinks that Paducah's mail facilities will now be adequate for at least another year.

One improvement that the local department will be able to make as a result of the additional carriers is in the downtown service. Four deliveries, beginning next Monday, will be made in the district between Fifth and Sixth streets on Broadway, including the various office buildings, and this will be a great benefit to the scores of business and profession men who transact their business on the block.

The promotion of Mr. Roberts will necessitate the appointment of another substitute carrier.

Superintendent Ashton is now at work on the new route and will have it complete in a day or two. The addition of the new carrier will benefit the service all over the city, by reducing the territory and work the carriers have at present.

Senator Hanna Desired as National Chairman.

An Important Conference Held with the President at Washington.

NOTHING DEFINITE WAS DONE

Washington, Nov. 10.—A conference of significance and importance was held at the executive offices yesterday between President Roosevelt and Senator Hanna, of Ohio. The president formally requested Senator Hanna to retain the chairmanship of the Republican national committee and to conduct the campaign next year.

In the course of the conference the subject of the presidential campaign was considered briefly, not only the chairmanship of the national committee being involved, but also Mr. Hanna's reported aspirations to the presidency.

The president and Senator Hanna remained in conference for a considerable time, notwithstanding the fact that several callers of note were waiting to see the president. The president urged the senator to retain the chairmanship of the national committee in order that the Republican party might in the approaching campaign have the benefit of his services at the head of the national organization.

Senator Hanna, it is understood, indicated his desire to retire from the work of active political management. The president, however, urged him in strong terms to continue in the political harness, pointing out to him that as the head of the organization he would inspire great confidence throughout the country.

No definite conclusion was reached, the understanding being that a further and more extended conference would be held in the near future.

From other sources it is learned that the senator has indicated that he will not be a presidential candidate, and

NOT VERY HOPEFUL.

There is not much consolation to the Democrats in the presidential outlook for next year. Judging from the recent elections, the division in the next electoral college is likely to be 374 Republican and 202 Democratic votes.

This gives the Democrats all the Southern states, Missouri, New York and Rhode Island. They are now trying to figure out how they can get enough to win. It is claimed by the Democrats that they can carry New York should Mr. Cleveland be nominated for the presidency.

The Republicans can win without
New York but the Democrats can't.
How the Democrats expect to carry
New York however, even if Mr.
Cleveland should be nominated, is hard to understand, especially if President Roosevelt, a New York man, is nominated by the Republicans. Of course it is possible, but Gorman or no other Democrat could carry New York, although Mr. Cleveland might do so.

It is predicted by some of the best politicians in the country that the Democrats can't carry either New York or Rhode Island, leaving them with but 159 votes in the electoral college. There appears to be no possible way for the Democrats to win next year.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Hon. Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, is to be speaker of the house, having been selected at a caucus held Saturday. Congressman Cannon is one of the best and most intelligent members and is a staunch Republican. In his address to the caucus he thus spoke of the Republican party:

"The Republican party stands for those policies that have in the main prevailed since 1861, under which, in forty years, from a comparatively small nation, we have grown to be first among the nations of the earth, and sovereignty with us is in the people.
The Republican party, being in the majority, is responsible and is entitled to the credit.

"Under these policies we enjoy material well-being exceeding that of any former period in our existence. The people never were so well and profitably employed as now."

tion of the product of each individual engaged in gainful occupation was never before so generous and profitable to all, at the same time leaving a surplus for future need in the shape of capital, which is better distributed among the people and much larger in the aggregate than ever before."

It begins to become apparent that in the absence of any other possible issue the Democrats will next year attempt to make negro equality, so-called, the issue. President Roosevelt is a fearless man who does his duty without regard to criticism and while the records of today show that there are less colored men in the employ of the government than at any previous period, this will not alter the determination of the Gorman men to make the question the issue. A Washington dispatch says on the subject: "Now that the Maryland campaign has entirely just closed after being conducted almost entirely on the race issue, it is presumed that Democrats generally will take their cue from Gorman, their leader in the senate, and intensify the issue in every way possible. The friends of the administration profess to believe the agitation can not but result to the advantage of the Republican ticket in the next campaign. In the north there is confidence that there is a full realization of the disinterested and impartial way in which the president tries to administer the laws of the republic, and that the people of that section know that he has been made the victim of gross exaggeration and misrepresentation."

Reports of the last council meeting state that the city has accepted the proposition of a local attorney to give him 50 per cent of all the taxes collected by him for the city on telegraph poles. It is not exactly clear what benefit this is going to be to the taxpayers of Paducah. If there is anything due the city as tax or license on telegraph poles, the city solicitor is the proper person to collect it. If any other attorney can do it, the solicitor ought to be able to do it, and that's what he is paid to do. There is no reason for paying an outside lawyer 50 per cent of an amount due the city when we have an attorney of our own to do it for nothing. The board of aldermen should investigate the matter before concurring in the action of the council. The taxpayers of Paducah will not care to indulge in the state administration's pastime of "Calhoun-ing" claims.

Modern methods are becoming apparent in most everything. A Missouri man has just been indicted in Oklahoma for murder, although he was never in the county in his life. A company in which he is interested built a bridge which seems to have collapsed, killing two men, and he is charged with murder as a result.

A Washington dispatch says that Kentucky and Maryland will be the next to join the southern states that have disfranchised the negro voter.
This is very possible, but its necessity is not plain. The Democrats seem to have no trouble stealing Kentucky, no matter how the vote goes.

You can never tell what's going to happen. A football player was killed in a prize fight in Pennsylvania a day or two ago. He must have been a rather bad football player, however.

It begins to look as if the army canteen will soon be re-established. No one seems to be against it except those who know least about it.

Mr. Claude Higgins will leave Sunday for Phoenix, Ariz., for his health. He recently returned from an extended sojourn there.

IN POLICE CIRCLES

Burglars Getting Bold on the South Side.

Judge Sanders Devotes a Short Time to "Colonel" Jim Davis, the Armless Man.

CITY HALL NEWS NOTES

Last night a burglar visited the residence of Mr. Virge Berry, of 1347 South Seventh street, and stole his fine 32 calibre pistol but fortunately could not gain entrance to the house.

Mr. Berry retired early in the night and placed his pistol on a chair near his bed, but within easy reach from the window. He was awakened in the night by a noise and heard some one trying to enter the front door. He remained silent until the burglar had come around the house, intending to secure his pistol and shoot him. The negro, as it later proved to be, had gone to the window first, raised the screen and window and reached in, securing the pistol. Mr. Berry was thus unarmed and could do nothing. After several repeated attempts to enter the intruder went away.

This morning it was found that both houses on each side of Mr. Berry's residence had been visited by the negro but nothing was secured. The intruder was unable to gain entrance to Mrs. Craft's house but did enter the residence of Mr. Theodore Metcalf but took nothing as far as the family could learn.

There have been many attempts at burglary of late on the South Side, and the police are keeping a strict lookout for the burglars. Two negroes were arrested Saturday on suspicion of having attempted to break into a house but no positive evidence could be secured against them. The authorities are tired of this kind of business and intend to break it up if they have to put on an extra squad of police.

Judge Sanders in police court this morning paid his respects to "Colonel" Jim Davis, who claims he was in the Confederate army. Davis is the armless man who has been sitting around begging for several days past. He has had two boys with him, one very small and the other about eighteen or twenty years old. The elder, George Davis, was arrested yesterday for stealing from a saloon, and this morning pleaded guilty to stealing a shirt but denied stealing an overcoat. He admitted that his armless father saw him steal it. A note from Davis to Judge Sanders was read, but the court stated that the police said the man was about the worst they had ever run up against. He ordered the fine for drunkenness served in the lockup, and gave the elder son sixty days in the city prison at labor for stealing the shirt. The smaller boy will be arrested if found, for stealing the overcoat.
"Father and two sons—and all stealing," remarked the court as he sent the son with the stolen shirt back to prisoner's bench.

The following minor offenses were adjudicated in the police court this morning:

Will Martin, colored, $10 and costs
for a breach of the peace.
Ben Harris, plain drunk, dismissed.
J. C. Healer, sleeping in a box car,
$5 and costs.

Harvey Davis, colored, vagrancy, left open.

Will Gholson, breach of the peace,
continued Saturday.

Cal Hinnon, violating the Sabbath,

Mike and Gus Bush and Dave Owen and Jim Bland, colored, who were arrested Sunday morning on suspicion of having tried to break into Moore's residence and store on the South Side.
They claim to be the wrong men, and say that they had no idea of such a thing and were not near the place. It is claimed one has been partially identified. The persons who came near getting in the house succeeded only in cutting a screen.

The warrant against Contractor Ed
Eaker, for assaulting Engineer Pat Grogan, was today sworn to and the trial of the case set for tomorrow morning before Judge Sanders Engineer Grogan is now able to be out, little the worse for his encounter.
The charge is assault and battery.

Burglars attempted to break into the home of Mr. Ed Tyree, on South Fourth street, about 12 o'clock last night. It is supposed to have been the same person or persons who attempted to break into other houses in that vicinity.

Elmer Harley and Irwin Springer, his partner, charged with cow stealing, were yesterday afternoon released from custody, no one appearing to claim the two cows found in possession of the young men.

The case against Harry Harton, for trying to shoot a daughter of Mr. Willis Morgan yesterday morning with a shotgun, was called today in Judge Sanders' court and continued until Thursday.

Pete Bruce, colored, was charged with beating his wife. He seemed to have beaten her and then jumped all over her, and the court assessed a $100 fine as not being too large.

Lindsey Kimball, colored, was charged in police court today with carrying concealed a pistol and was given $40 and 20 days in jail.

Dan Pryor, colored, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of breach of the peace.

HAPPY DAYS

WHEN FRIENDS SAY "HOW WELL YOU LOOK."

What happy days are those when all our friends say "How well you look." We can bring those days by a little care in the selection of food just as this young man did.

"I had suffered from dyspepsia for three years and last summer was so bad I was unable to attend school," he says. "I was very thin and my appetite at times was poor while again it was craving. I was dizzy and my food always used to ferment instead of digesting. Crossness, unhappiness and nervousness were very prominent symptoms."

"Late in the summer I went to visit a sister and there I saw and used Grape Nuts. I had heard of this famous food before but never was interested enough to try it, for I never knew how really good it was. But when I came home we used Grape Nuts in our household all the time and I soon began to note changes in my health. I improved steadily and am now strong and well in every way and am back at school able to get my lessons with ease and pleasure and can remember them too, for the improvement in my mental power is very noticeable and I get good marks in my studies which always seemed difficult before."

"I have no more of the bad symptoms given above but feel fine and strong and happy and it is mighty pleasant to hear my friends say: 'How well you look.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, 'The Road to Wellville.'"

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD

THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS CITIZEN'S STATEMENT IS INVALUABLE TO PADUCAH PEOPLE.

When a resident of Paducah, whose statement appears below, who has no monetary or other interest in the article which he endorses, who is anxious to do his acquaintances a good turn, who publishes in this paper his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills—that citizen must have good and sufficient reason for doing so. The following should dispel any doubts which may have existed in the reader's mind on this subject:

W. W. Morris, residing at 902 Bronson street, a school teacher well known in Paducah, says: "One of the members of my family has been troubled with kidney disease for some time. A good number of would-be cures were tried but they did not permanently relieve the trouble. We noticed an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills and sent to DuBois & Co's drug store and got a box. The pills were used and found to do all that is claimed for them, and we can endorse this remedy to anyone who is a sufferer from kidney trouble for we have great confidence in its merits."

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

SUIT FOR ALLEGED SLANDER NOW ON TRIAL.

At press time the case of T. H. Smith against Tony Iseman was in the hands of the jury, the evidence having been concluded just before noon.

At press time the case of F. G. Rudolph, administrator of John Bell, who was killed by a fall at Fourth and Broadway against the Paducah Railway and Light company, was on trial.

The cases of Dr. Frank Boyd against the McCracken county fiscal court and M. M. Cooley against the same, for smallpox services, were continued yesterday afternoon late.

It seems that there was some misunderstanding as to who should be summoned to appear before the court, the county judge or the entire fiscal court and finally the cases were continued over. Dr. Boyd sues for $900 and Dr. Cooley for $130.

In the case of Mrs. H. L. Whitesides against the city of Paducah, the style of the suit was changed to G. M. Thomas and Florence Whitesides administrators of H. L. Whitesides, against the city of Paducah. She resides at Chattanooga, Tenn.

A judgment for sale was filed in the case of Emily Graham against Morris McIntyre and others.

Mrs. Eva Clayton was this morning granted a divorce from her husband George Clayton and given also the custody of her child.

TURKEY SUPPLY

Is Taking Up Every Available Car. Even the Baggage.

"The Burgomaster" Must Take Its Scenery out of Paducah in a Stock Car.

The Kentucky turkey controls the supply of baggage cars for theatrical companies that are moving eastward. The corn fed, Borbor raised and blue grass fattened gobbler is in the greatest demand in the eastern markets now, in anticipation of Thanksgiving dinners, and as a result all the railroads running to the east are using every available car for the shipment. Freight cars are not enough, and the large 60 foot baggage cars, built especially for theatrical hauling, have been called into service.

"The Burgomaster" company, after playing Paducah will move through Louisville east over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad into Washington and Philadelphia. The company can get its scenery and baggage into a 60 foot car, by crowding. When the business manager, T. M. Leary, made arrangements with the road in Louisville this week for the trip, he was informed that it would be impossible to furnish him with a large car. R. E. Parsons, the agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio at Louisville, made strenuous efforts to get a suitable car, and finally succeeded in obtaining one fifty foot stock car, and a small baggage car, with which the company will have to be contented.

Perils of the Lumbermen.

A crew of seven men were loosening timbers from the rocks above a great cataract on the River Des Quinze. The nearer they worked to the head of the rapids the more imminent grew their peril. At last the cautious steersman, a half breed named Polson, refused to venture further the lives of his crew. The foolhardy foreman ordered him out, stepped aboard and took Polson's steering paddle. Out from the bank they shot swiftly and down the steep incline. All went well until they wished to turn their boat beside the rocks that blocked the timber when to their consternation the speed of the boat slackened. Managing to point her bow up stream, they rowed with all their strength. For some seconds she never moved. Surely the demon of the rapids had caught them. With pounding heart and panting breath they tugged with all their might and main, but to no purpose. Inch by inch, with increasing rage, he drew them until at last with a deafening roar he hurled them, boat and all, like a javelin, into the very depths of the gigantic chudron of boiling foam.—Arthur Hemling in Scribner's.

Fateful Order to Halt.

In less than half an hour my troops would have swept up and over those hills, the possession of which was of such momentous consequence. It is not surprising, with a full realization of the consequences of a halt, that I should have refused at first to obey the order. Not until the third or fourth order of the most peremptory character reached me did I obey. I think I should have risked the consequences of disobedience even then but for the fact that the order to halt was accompanied with the explanation that General Lee, who was several miles away, did not wish to give battle at Gettysburg. It is stated on good authority that General Lee said some time before his death that if Jackson had been there he would have won in this battle a great and possibly decisive victory. I cannot vouch for the truth of this statement, as I did not hear it; but no soldier in a great crisis ever wished more ardently for a deliverer's hand than I wished for one hour of Jackson when I was ordered to halt.—General John B. Gordon in Scribner's.

Deferential.

"I—I have come to—to ask for your daughter's hand," stammered the embarrassed youth. "When do you wish to be married?" snapped her father. "Whenever you desire," replied the obliging youth. "I'm a man of few words," snarled the parent. "Oh, that's all right," replied the suitor. "What is your income?" growled the father. "It isn't worth mentioning," answered the suitor, thoughtlessly.

LEYHE FLEET

Big St. Louis Boats Will Begin Coming to Paducah.

Spend Much Money Here During the Winter Season—Will Arrive Soon.

In a short time the big Leyhe steamers will begin arriving from St. Louis to go into winter quarters here. At present there is an unprecedented stage of water at St. Louis, and the fleet has not yet found it necessary to seek a harbor at Paducah.

Every year the steamers are brought here with their barges to go into winter quarters, and often there is almost half a million dollars worth of floating stock above Paducah in "Duck's Nest" at one time.

There are usually six or more big steamboats, such as the Spread, and the Bald Eagle, with many barges. The coming of these boats is always hailed with delight by the river interests, because the Leyhes spend from $1,000 to $3,000 a month for repairs, materials and stores, often a total of $20,000 during their stay.

BEST LINIMENT ON EARTH.

L. M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., writes, Nov. 2, 1900: "I had rheumatism last winter was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism."

For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

ONLY A RUMOR.

REPORT THAT MITCHELL MIGHT GET A CABINET POSITION UNTRUE.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 10.—The Dispatch publishes a story to the effect that John Mitchell will not be a candidate for re-election as president of the United mine workers at the January convention, and that Mr. Mitchell, assuming that President Roosevelt would be re-elected, decided to lay aside the miners' office to become a member of the President's cabinet, succeeding George B. Cortelyou as secretary of the department of commerce and labor. Secretary Cortelyou, it is said, has decided not again to be the head of the department, and may go back to the position of private secretary to the President.

Washington, Nov. 10.—From high authority it can be said that Secretary Cortelyou will remain in the cabinet, and the story that John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, is to become Secretary of Commerce and labor, is absurd. No cabinet change is in prospect.

A BIG JOB

THE OSBORNE CONTRACT TO BE LET SHORTLY.

The I. C. is receiving estimates for work on the transfer steamer Osborne, and the contract for a thorough overhauling of this craft will probably be let in a few days.

Several months ago the inspectors made the company take the boat out of service as it was considered unsafe and since that time the St. Louis trains have been transferred from Paducah to Brookport on a barge towed by the steamer Woolfolk and later the steamer Ten Broeck. Last week the company called for bids which have been furnished by the Paducah Marine Ways company, the ways company at St. Louis and also the Mound City Ways company. There are several other companies bidding but these are the most prominent.

It is understood that the work will amount to something like $25,000 and will be a big thing for the firm landing it. The boat has to be practically rebuilt. The hull will be rebuilt but much of the old machinery will be used again. The woodwork will have to be made new entirely, it is said. The result of the bidding will be made known probably before the week is out. The bids have to be taken to headquarters in Chicago where the decision is made.

TAX RATE

IT WILL BE SEVERAL WEEKS BEFORE THE BOOKS ARE READY.

The assessment for city taxes in Paducah is nearing completion, and Assessor Dick will have the books ready for the supervisors in a few weeks now, and the supervisors will be appointed and begin their duties in January.

The appropriations for various city departments are then made and the tax levy ordinance is passed in March. While it will be some little time until the tax rate is decided on, there is already considerable speculation as to what it will be for next year.

The SKY PILOT

By RALPH CONNOR

Author of
"The Man From Glengarry"
"Glengarry School Days" and "Black Rock"

Copyright, 1899, by FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY

"Don't think I put this up on you," Jack said. "It was that cape. He ain't used to such frolics. But it was a circus," he added, going off into a fit of laughter, "worth $5 any day."

"You bet!" said the half breed. "Dat's make pretty beeg fun, eh?"

It seemed to me that it depended somewhat upon the point of view, but I merely agreed with him, only too glad to be so well out of the fight.

All day we followed the trail that wound along the shoulders of the round topped hills or down their long slopes into the wide, grassy valleys. Here and there the valleys were cut through by coulees through which ran swift, blue gray rivers, clear and icy cold, while from the hilltops we caught glimpses of little lakes covered with wild fowl that shrieked and squawked and splashed, careless of danger. Now and then we saw what made a black spot against the green of the prairie, and Jack told me it was a rancher's shack. How remote from the great world, and how lonely it seemed—this little black shack among these multitudinous hills!

I shall never forget the summer evening when Jack and I rode into Swan Creek. I say into, but the village was almost entirely one of imagination. In that it consisted of the Stopping Place, a long log building, a store and a half high, with stables behind, and the store in which the post office was kept and over which the owner dwelt. But the situation was one of great beauty. On one side the prairie rambled down from the hills and then stretched away in tawny levels into the misty purple at the horizon; on the other it clambered over the round, sunny tops to the dim blue of the mountains beyond.

In this world, where it is impossible to reach absolute values, we are forced to hold things relatively, and in contrast with the long, lonely miles of our ride during the day these two houses, with their outbuildings, seemed a center of life. Some horses were tied to the rail that ran along in front of the Stopping Place.

"Hello!" said Jack. "I guess the Noble Seven are in town."

"And who are they?" I asked.

"Oh," he replied, with a shrug, "they are the elite of Swan Creek, and, by Jove," he added, "this must be a permit night."

"What does that mean?" I asked, as we rode up toward the tie rail.

"Well," said Jack in a low tone, for some men were standing about the door, "you see, this is a prohibition country, but when one of the boys feels as if he were going to have a spell of sickness he gets a permit to bring in a few gallons for medicinal purposes, and, of course, the other boys being similarly exposed, he invites them to assist him in taking preventive measures, and," added Jack, with a solemn wink, "it is remarkable, in a healthy country like this, how many epidemics come near catching us."

And with this mystifying explanation we joined the mysterious Company of the Noble Seven.

CHAPTER II.

THE COMPANY OF THE NOBLE SEVEN.

AS we were dismounting the cries, "Hello, Jack!" "How do, Dale?" "Hello, old Smoke!" in the heartiest of tones made me see that my cousin was a favorite with the men grouped about the door. Jack simply nodded in return, and then presented me in due form. "My tenderfoot cousin from the efete," he said, with a flourish. I was surprised at the grace of the bows made me by these roughly dressed, wild looking fellows. I might have been in a London drawing room. I was put at my ease at once by the kindness of their greeting, for, upon Jack's introduction, I was admitted at once into their circle, which to a tenderfoot was usually closed.

What a hardy looking lot they were! Brown, spare, sinewy and hard as nails, they appeared like soldiers back from a hard campaign. They moved and spoke with an easy, careless air of almost lazy indifference, but their eyes had a trick of looking straight at you, cool and fearless, and you felt they were fit and ready.

That night I was initiated into the Company of the Noble Seven—but of the ceremony I regret to say I retain but an indistinct memory; for they drank as they rode, hard and long, and it was only Jack's care that got me safely home that night.

The Company of the Noble Seven was the dominant social force in the Swan Creek country. Indeed, it was the only social force Swan Creek knew. Originally consisting of seven young fellows of the best blood of Britain, "banded together for purposes of mutual improvement and social enjoyment," it had changed its character during the years, but not its name. First, its membership was extended to include "approved colonials," such as Jack Dale and "others of kindred spirit," under which head, I suppose, the two cowboys from the Ashley ranch, Hi Kendal and Bronco Bill—no one knew and no one asked his other name—were admitted. Then its purposes gradually limited themselves to those of a social nature, chiefly in the line of poker playing and whisky drinking. Well born and delicately bred in that atmosphere of culture mingled with a sturdy common sense and a certain high chivalry which surrounds the stately homes of Britain, these young lads, freed from the restraints of custom and surrounding, soon shed all that was superficial in their make up and stood forth in the naked simplicity of their native manhood. The west discovered and revealed the man in them, sometimes to their honor, often to their shame.

The chief of the Company was the Hon. Fred Ashley of the Ashley ranch, some time of Ashley Court, England—a big good natured man with a magnificent physique, a good income from home and a beautiful wife, the Lady Charlotte, daughter of a noble English family. At the Ashley ranch the traditions of Ashley Court were preserved as far as possible. The Hon. Fred appeared at the wolf hunts in riding breeches and top boots, with hunting crop and English saddle, while in all the appointments of the house the customs of the English home were observed. It was characteristic, however, of western life that his two cowboys, Hi Kendal and Bronco Bill, felt themselves quite his social equals, though in the presence of his beautiful, stately wife they confessed that they "rather weakened." Ashley was a thoroughly good fellow, well up to his work as a cattle man and too much of a gentleman to feel, much less assert, any superiority of station. He had the largest ranch in the country and was one of the few men making money.

Ashley's chief friend, or at least most frequent companion, was a man whom they called the Duke. No one knew his name, but every one said he was "the son of a lord," and certainly from his style and bearing he might be the son of almost anything that was high enough in rank. He drew "a remittance," but as that was paid through Ashley no one knew whence it came nor how much it was. He was a perfect picture of a man, and in all western virtues was easily first. He could rope a steer, bunch cattle, play poker or drink whisky to the admiration of his friends and the confusion of his foes, of whom he had a few, while as to "bronco busting," the virtue par excellence of western cattle men, even Bronco Bill was heard to acknowledge that "he wasn't in it with the Duke, for it was his opinion that he could ride anything that had legs in under it, even if it was a blanketed centipede."

And this, coming from one who made a profession of "bronco busting," was unquestionably high praise. The Duke lived alone, except when he deigned to pay a visit to some lonely rancher who, for the marvelous charm of his talk, was delighted to have him as guest, even at the expense of the loss of a few games at poker. He made a friend of no one, though some men could tell of times when he stood between them and their last dollar, exacting only the promise that no mention should be made of his deed. He had an easy, lazy manner and a slow, cynical smile that rarely left his face, and the only sign of deepening passion in him was a little broadening of his smile. Old Latour, who kept the Stopping Place, told me how once the Duke had broken into a gentle laugh.

A French half breed freighter on his way north had entered into a game of poker with the Duke, with the result that his six months' pay stood in a little heap at his enemy's left hand. The enraged freighter accused his smiling opponent of being a cheat, and was proceeding to demolish him with one mighty blow. But the Duke, still smiling and without moving from his chair, caught the descending fist, slowly crushed the fingers open and steadily drew the Frenchman to his knees, gripping him so cruelly in the meantime that he was forced to cry aloud in agony for mercy. Then it was that the Duke broke into a light laugh and, touching the kneeling Frenchman on his cheek with his finger tips, said:

Theatrical Notes.

"IL TROVATORE."

Joseph Fredericks as Manrico,
Francis Carrier as Count de Luna,
Alex Lion as Fernando,
Arthur Bower as Ruiz,
Walter Condit as the gipsy,
Mabel Klar as Inez, Daise Thorne as Leonora; and Rose Cecilia Shay as Azucena.
Peasants, smugglers, gypsies, retainers, etc., by the company.
Carlo Niccolai, musical director.

Paducah theatre goers had their first taste of real grand opera last night in the presentation of "Il Trovatore" by the Rose Cecilia Shay Grand Opera company. Speaking in general, the production seemed to be satisfactory in every respect to the large audience. It could not be expected that the average person, who had never before in his or her life heard grand opera, would be able to fully appreciate it, but especially those with a musical education were delighted with the performance, and there were very few expressions of disapproval heard.

The principals were very fine, especially Miss Shay. Her voice and acting are both excellent, and she had splendid support. Miss Daisey Thorne, the soprano, being one of the most pleasing singers ever heard here. Miss Mabel Klar, who plays "Inez," was taken suddenly ill before the performance and an understudy had to sing her part, but the role was a minor one, and the audience was unable to detect any change. Mr. Carrier has a baritone of great volume and clearness, and Mr. Alex Lion, the basso, in the initial solo, convinced the audience of his vocal powers. Mr. Joseph Fredericks, the tenor, has a soft, musical voice but it was considered somewhat weak.

The chorus is small, and in "Il Trovatore," at least disappointing.

The orchestra is one of the best ever heard in Paducah, and consists of eight Italian musicians. The audience showed its appreciation last night by repeated curtain calls. Miss Shay and her company made a good impression on Paducah amusement lovers, and Miss Shay has firmly established herself as a favorite here.

A piece of light scenery fell down on Miss Shay while she was singing during the last act, but did not injure her, as it was merely a frame covered with canvas. She was quite startled by the mishap, and there was for a moment a flutter of excitement in the large audience, but it soon passed away and the opera was finished as if nothing had happened.

That jolly jingle "The Burgomaster," one of the merriest musical comedies that has ever been in Paducah will make its bow here at The Kentucky Thursday night again. The production promised this time, in more ways than one, is decidedly different from that seen last season, and although it contains all of the old familiar melodies, nevertheless it admits of many new musical numbers which are introduced, in addition to many bright vaudeville features. The company is the largest and most eminent this merry mellange has ever had, and comprises Ruth White, Oscar Figman, Thomas Ricketts, William Riley Hatch, R. J. Moyo, Charles Sharp, George McKissock, Helen Dexter, Hammett Sheldon, Louise Brackett and Josephina Ditt, in addition to the celebrated "girlie" chorus of Western beauties.

"A Romance of Coon Hollow" is one of the largest dramatic productions on the road. Besides a magnificent equipment of scenic, calicum and electrical effects, and a strong acting company, there are carried a band of colored boy and girl dancers, and vocal quartette. It has been before the public for more than nine successful seasons. The company, in addition to being a specially selected one, is strengthened by the special engagement of little Ruby Erwood, and will appear at The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night. Special 25c matinee. Night prices, first 12 rows orchestra, 75c. Balance of orchestra and balcony, 50c.

One of the most important events of the present theatrical season will be the appearance at The Kentucky on Monday, November 23, of Miss Helen Grantly in Lorrimer Stoddard's romantic drama, "In the Palace of the King," dramatized from F. Marion Crawford's novel of the same name. Miss Grantly is surrounded by an exceptional company and a wealth of magnificent scenery.

MEN AND THE WIDOW.

(From the Chicago Record-Herald.)

"Young Mrs. Weedlets says she'll never marry again."

"I know she says so, but I happen to hear her make the remark once, before she ever thought of being one herself, that a pretty young widow who protested that she would never marry again always attracts men like a sugar bowl draws flies.

POINT IN ITS FAVOR.

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

"Yes, but it makes the thing dangerous only to the fellows that are riding in them."

In 1901 my mother commenced taking Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the doctors said her lungs were so badly involved that she would not likely be alive but a few weeks. It improved her so rapidly that she was soon in good health for one of her years. I wish you the success you deserve with your Emulso-Hypo.
